Dear Applicant

Trustee Application

Thank you for your interest in Fertility Network UK. We're an independent charity working hard to help the 3.5 million people in the UK affected by the devastation and pain of fertility issues. We are at a time of board change and seeking 3 new trustees, including one trustee who has the appropriate skillset to take up the position of Chair to cover maternity leave. We are delighted that you're considering joining us.

It's an exciting time for the charity and your opportunity to influence its strategic direction and join a passionate and dynamic board. You can help create the future and make the journey of dealing with fertility challenges easier not only today but for future generations.

We are a small, dedicated board and our goal is to expand it, not only in skill set but in diversity. We are advocates of equal opportunities and welcome applications from all regardless of age, gender identity, sexual orientation, race, or disability status. As a national charity we also welcome applications from candidates anywhere across the UK.

In this pack you will find:

- Some information on what the charity does and where you can find out more;
- Some information on what it means to be a trustee;
- The trustee advert and role profile.

The application process: please send us (each maximum 2 sides of A4):

1. your CV; and
2. a supportive statement outlining how you meet the requirements of the trustee specification (using examples where possible) and your motivation for applying.

We're interested to learn about the qualities and/or experience you would bring, how you could help fill our skills and diversity gaps (if applicable) and your vision for the charity going forward.

Submit these titled 'Trustee Application' marked for the attention of the Chair of the Board to the Chief Executive gwenda@fertilitynetworkuk.org

We would be very happy to have an informal discussion with you about the role.

Thank you so much for your interest in Fertility Network UK. I look forward to hearing from you soon.

With best wishes,

What does Fertility Network UK do?

Fertility Network UK provides free and impartial support, advice, information and understanding for anyone affected by fertility issues. We are the nation's leading patient-focused fertility charity and are here on a practical and emotional level to offer support services, information and access to a community of people affected by fertility problems.

- We provide help to people considering their future fertility; those trying to become parents; those facing the challenges of childlessness; those successful after fertility problems and those who need help to access NHS-funded fertility treatment.
- We are the patient voice in the campaign for equitable access to NHS fertility treatment in the UK – based on medical need and not postcode. We co-chair campaign group Fertility Fairness, and ensure that the issues which matter to patients are heard by politicians, policy-makers and health commissioners.
- Our education project (presently in Scotland) raises awareness of the importance of fertility education in protecting and maintaining future fertility and highlights some practical steps young people can take to help protect their future fertility.

We work with the media to raise public awareness of all aspects of fertility issues, to highlight the need for equitable access to NHS fertility services and to promote the need for fertility education in order to protect and maintain future fertility.

You can find out more information about the charity by looking at:

What are trustees?

Applicants should be aware of the relevant Charity Commission Guidance, in particular, CC3 The Essential Trustee.

Our trustees are the people that have overall oversight of the charity. They are not involved in running the charity on a day-to-day basis as we have a team of staff and volunteers that do this. However, our board of trustees collectively make decisions about the approach the charity will take and its future direction. They make sure that we have the policies and procedures needed to show we're complying with our legal obligations. They provide support, ideas and constructive challenge to our staff team to test thinking and help the charity to achieve the best it can for our services uses and demonstrate the difference that we make.

You can read a summary of the duties that trustees have here.

We really want our board of trustees to represent our community. We'd love to hear from all ages and backgrounds.

Meetings and time commitment

- We hold trustee meetings once a quarter we anticipate going forward 2 will be held digitally and 2 in person.
- The agenda and papers are usually emailed to trustees the week before to give you time to read them.
- Once a year we spend a whole day together to think about our future plans and to provide training to trustees as a group. This is usually on a Saturday at an agreed location.
- Trustees stay in touch regularly by conference call. As the Board expands, we'll review this arrangement – e.g. creating various committees which you may participate on or chair.
- You'll be asked to contribute your thoughts and advice on topics between meetings, usually via email or telephone, and occasionally to engage in ad-hoc tasks and groups.
- You'll be invited to events sometimes. Whilst optional, we encourage trustees to attend as many as they can.
- Being a trustee is a voluntary role but the charity will pay for out-of-pocket expenses e.g. for travel to trustee meetings in line with our agreed policy.
