Fertility Network UK responds to Wales Fertility Institute closure concerns

Emma Rees, Wales Coordinator at Fertility Network UK, commented: “Following recent media coverage relating to Wales Fertility Institute, we understand that patients will be feeling a great deal of distress in relation to the uncertainty of the clinic’s future.

“We would like to reassure patients that Fertility Network UK will communicate all information we receive in relation to this matter as soon as we receive it. In the meantime, we remind all patients in Wales who may be affected by this uncertainty that we here to support you. Please get in touch via wales@fertilitynetworkuk.org to chat with a member of staff.

“You are not alone.”
