Fertility Network UK appoints Interim CEO

The board of trustees at Fertility Network UK are thrilled to appoint Sharon Martin as Interim CEO.

Sharon has been Head of Grants and Business Development at Fertility Network UK for seven years and has supported the charity in forging crucial relationships with external partners to help drive the mission of the charity forward.

Taking up the role of Interim CEO, Sharon's role will work to enhance the support provided by the charity to its beneficiaries, as it has for the last 20 years.

Sophie Giddings, Trustee at Fertility Network UK said: "We are thrilled to announce Sharon as interim CEO of Fertility Network UK. This appointment supports the charity's mission to continue providing crucial services and information to those navigating fertility issues. We know that Sharon will continue to raise the voice of the charity and its beneficiaries in this new position."

Sharon Martin, Interim CEO said: "After 7 years at Fertility Network UK, I am proud to take up the position as Interim CEO at an exciting time following our 20th anniversary. Having been on my own fertility journey, I have always been passionate about supporting those experiencing fertility issues and will work to ensure that our charity continues to reach anyone who is need of guidance and support."
